Thank you for the quick response. I will ask Councillors whether they would like to take you up on your offer and get back to you shortly.

Dear Richard

Thank you for your email, i have forwarded the same to my colleague Henry cooper who is dealing with the finite design and the main planning application. I have this evening spoken to Henry and suggested that maybe we could meet soon, even at your next council meeting to discuss your views, visions, and general requirements with a view that we may try to accommodate those where possible into our design.

I Look forward to meeting with you all.

Best Regards
